

HOME STRETCH HOUSING ASSISTANCE FUND APPLICATION

Information for Property Owners & Managers

Thank you for your support of the Home Stretch Housing Assistance Fund. The Fund provides financial assistance for housing costs for qualified applicants and households who are receiving services from specific Alameda County service providers.

All payments are made directly to third parties: landlords or property management companies.

This housing fund may be used for move in assistance like the first month's rent and security deposits as well as items and services needed to make the home safe and accessible.

Applications are submitted by service providers in partnership with applicants and include information about the applicant's housing situation. Information is also needed directly from the Property Owner (Landlord) or Property manager for payments to be made on behalf of the applicant.

Required Documentation from Property Owner/Property Manager

In order to make payment, our finance department requires a signed invoice and signed W-9 form. Once the paperwork is complete, payment is typically mailed within 5 business days.

Please submit the following documents by mail:

- Fully completed, signed invoice
- W-9 form with signature
- HCSA Housing Assistance Fund Vendor Form

The name on the forms must remain consistent. For example, if the check is made payable to "ABC Property Management," the W-9 form should include this name and the Business Add/Update Form should include this name.

In addition, in some cases the property owner or property manager may also be asked to provide a copy of the lease, if the applicant does not have a current copy. We must establish tenancy in order to pay the requested housing costs. HCSA must be able to verify that the vendor has the right to rent the property. HCSA has search tools to do this, however if ownership cannot be verified the application cannot be approved.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
